the best.

Always,
Barbara
Good

DEDICATION

W. F. Hale

Much serious thought goes into the selection of a person to whom to dedicate a yearbook. After a great deal of consideration, we, the HEREFORD staff, have unanimously chosen a person that we respect for his gentility, his mental attributes, his stability, his integrity, his subtle sense of humor, and his Christian character.

To Mr. W. F. Hale, modest, friendly, impeccably groomed teacher, we proudly dedicate the 1958-59 HEREFORD.

Dear Sir,

My eventful high school days are almost finished. As I look back on them I can see now think of no one but you, who has made them so pleasant and happy. You are a great friend and a wonderful man.
Although I could never put back, in time the things I have done for you. All I can think to say is thank you for everything,
and hope you will be very happy,
and all

To a real swell gall cavalier! justly. Don't forget at all. I'll ensure that you too had the best of years.
Let's hope we have to have the best. Yours,
J. H. (J. H. H.)

Dear Judy,

Boy!

This year was the darnest year I believe I've ever had to go through, and yet here it is closing up on us like a room getting smaller & smaller. (Wow! Dig that literature. I think I'll be a writer.) No, kidding it seems only yesterday that we registered for our Sophomore year. This year has really flown by, hasn't it? No matter how old we get, I'll never forget the good times we've had together, especially on school trips. I've heard a lot of people say their Sophomore year was their worst year and I believe I can say the same thing. I hope our Junior year <sup>is</sup> better. I could go on writing forever so I guess I'd better quit. Luck & success always.

Love forever,
Shirl
